

AMARILLO DAILY NEWS

VOL. IV. NO. 221.

AMARILLO DAILY NEWS, SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 18, 1914.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

UNITED STATES WORKS FOR PEACE

EVERYTHING BEING DONE TO PAVE WAY FOR SETTLEMENT OF TROUBLE

CONSULT WITH ZAPATA

Carranza Has Been Informed That He Must Conduct the Celebration of Triumph Temperately

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—Every influence and diplomatic agency at the disposal of the United States was working today for immediate peace in Mexico.

To assure the restoration of normal conditions without further bloodshed, officials here are endeavoring to smooth the way for a new and stable administration for Mexico which will receive the recognition of the powers of the world.

It became known today that the administration is indirectly in communication with Emiliano Zapata, leader of the revolution in Southern Mexico, who is said to have twenty-four thousand men, who although poorly armed, would constitute a menace to the new government if they remained in revolt. An emissary from Carranza is now enroute to confer with Zapata.

Carranza has been informed he must conduct his triumph temperately.

Through John R. Silliman, personal representative of Wilson, the American government is offering Carranza advice.

Authority for the transition of the present administration to Carranza's government commissioners has been sent to Guadalajara. Guarantees of lives and property are practically the only terms Carrizal asks.

Officials in Washington are predicting complete peace in Mexico within a fortnight.

Carrizal Ready to Yield

MONTEREY, Mex., July 17.—Provisional President Carrizal is ready to yield unconditionally to the Constitutionalists, according to advice here. This is evidenced in the making of the special committee selected to confer with Carranza.

The request that Federal officers garrisoning San Luis Potosi be allowed to join the Constitutionalists army with their present rank rank was refused by Carranza, who said he would not repeat the mistake of Madero in allowing the enemy into his ranks.

Fighting Typhoid Germ

EL PASO, Texas, July 17.—All officers of the Northern Division of the Constitutional army have been inoculated by anti-typhoid serum, says the American army, following the recent death of Gen. Toribio Ortega from fever which prompted Madero to issue the order for inoculation.

Huerta at Puerto

PIRETO, Mex., July 17.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta, who recently resigned as provisional president of Mexico, arrived here shortly after nine tonight, accompanied by Gen. Blanquet, his minister of war. Huerta will remain aboard his train tonight.

Arrangements were made early to receive Huerta and escort him aboard the Bristol or Dresden.

Ticks were laid so the special train can be pulled along the wharf close to the water to enable Huerta to reach the launch in a dozen steps.

MOTORCYCLIST PLUNGES OVER EMBANKMENT FATALLY HURT

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 17.—Thomas B. Lewis, of Birmingham, was fatally injured today at the races under the auspices of the Federation of American motorcyclists now in convention here.

He crashed into a fence and fell over a twenty-foot embankment in the first race today while travelling a mile a minute.

Deduct Glick Statue.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—President Wilson has so far recovered from his attack of indigestion to be able to take an automobile ride today.

Physicians directed him to remain quiet in his room all day, but the president has taken matters in his own hands.

RESULTS OF GAMES AT DRACES AT CHILDRESS

Spokane, Wash., July 17.—Many carloads of exhibits are arriving here in anticipation of the opening of the North Dakota State Fair next Monday. All signs point to one of the most successful exhibitions ever held in the northwest. The program list is the largest ever offered in the state and as a result the choice products of the stock farm, orchard and field will be included in the display. In addition, the board of directors have added many attractions for the entertainment of the visitors.

The deficit will not make the opening of interesting ceremonies in which the Kansas representatives in Congress will take part. Governor Glick was a lawyer and a farmer, and was one of the pioneers of Kansas.

SEATTLE MOTOR SPEEDWAY TO OPEN.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 17.—The new Seattle Motor Speedway is to be formally opened tomorrow with a program of racing events. The speedway is one of the largest and finest in America. The track is one and one-quarter miles in length, built with a concrete base and an asphalt surface and banked seven feet on the turns. The two main grandstands will accommodate forty thousand spectators and parking space for three thousand automobiles will be reserved in the infield. The inaugural race meeting will cover two days. The first day is to be devoted to sprints, varying in distance from five to twenty-five miles. The second event of the day will be a 250-mile race for $20,000 in prizes.

General Arieta, Bandit, Who May Fight Constitutionalists

TO DEFER STRIKE FOR DISCUSSION

MEDIATION ACCEPTED BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF ENGINEERS

RAILROADS MAKE OFFER

Deny, in Letter to Engineers, That They Have Ever Failed or Refused to Make by Arbitration

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 17.—Danger of a strike of engine crews on Western railroads was deferred tonight when representatives of the men accepted the offer of mediation by William L. Chamberlain, chairman of the Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation, meeting with a full house to begin here July 20.

The offer of mediation came as a result of the request of A. W. Trenholm, chairman of the committee of general managers, which was made in spite of formal disagreement by the employees that they would decline to accept mediation and charges that the railroads heretofore had refused to abide by the findings of the arbitration board.

The railroads committee in a letter to the union men denied that they had refused to abide by awards.

COMMERCE BUREAU PROVES OF BENEFIT

Reports From Four Branches Indicate Increased Interest Among Consumers

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—Reports from the four branch offices of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, which are already in operation in New York, Chicago, New Orleans and San Francisco, just received by Secretary of Commerce E. M. Clegg indicate increasing interest among business concern in the work of the Bureau and its branch offices. Benefits lead the way that he would kill a white man and the son of his people could rest in peace in the happy hunting ground. There was nothing personal about it, but the carrying out of a sort of religious duty. When the Indian was taken to St. Elizabeth as being insane he refused to talk and tried to make himself understood by the sign language. That convinced the authorities he was insane.

About a year ago a party of Sioux visited the asylum and established the identity of Spo-Pe. His case was brought to the attention of the authorities and it was discovered that he was an Indian, Comanche Capt. Spotted Elk, who was captured by the Sioux and spending money as easily as nearly anyone else. Living with him was a young man named Joseph Duddy, whose acquaintance he had made in Toledo, but who so far as is known was not concerned in the Grand Rapids robbery.

The Pliskertons were brought into the case by the national protective association of jewelers. Two of their detectives finally succeeded in locating Robinson in this city, where several weeks he had been living at a downtown hotel and spending money as easily as nearly anyone else. Living with him was a young man named Joseph Duddy, whose acquaintance he had made in Toledo, but who so far as is known was not concerned in the Grand Rapids robbery.

On June 19 the two detectives found Robinson and Duddy dining in the cafe. The detectives belonged in Philadelphia and in consequence had no authority to make any arrests here without a warrant. They therefore telephoned to police headquarters to send an officer to make the arrest. Police Inspector Norton was just leaving headquarters to attend the graduation of the office of his two children. Without hesitation he accepted the assignment and hurried in the car to meet the detainees. On learning of the notorious character of Robinson and his propensity to shoot on the slightest occasion, the inspector picked up two of his brother officers on the street, which made a party of five to accomplish the arrests.

Upon entering the cafe the party at once walked toward the table where sat Robinson and his companion. It was mid-afternoon and the cafe was filled with men and women, laughing and joking. As the police approached, Robinson glanced up and in an instant was on his feet. He drew his revolver quickly, saying, "You'll never take me alive." Then there was a shot. Inspector Norton grabbed Robinson, managed to shake him off, and broke away. Again Robinson fired his revolver. Norton fell with a bullet wound just under the heart and died before he reached the hospital.

The other policemen rushed at Robinson, but he fought them off, and reaching one of the exits, dashed up the stairway leading to the street. The pursuing policemen were right at his heels, each with his revolver in his hand. They followed a running pistol fight, the like of which Boston had never seen before. Bullets flew wildly, but not a pedestrian in the crowded street was hit. The crowd frightened by the shooting, frantically tried to get out of the way. Doorways were soon filled with men and women. Bullets shattered store windows nearby and the noise of bullets could be heard for blocks. Traitors were brought to a standstill and cars were deserted as they stood in the street.

The chase soon ended, however, for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.

Being Resettled in India

By Associated Press.

DALLAS, Tex., July 17.—John H. Bowman, aged 28 years, former private secretary to Governor Thomas Lambell, and member of the 6th Legislature, died suddenly today in his home, 1819 Park Row.

His wife was visiting with her parents at Palestine but returned to Dallas late tonight. The body will be taken to Ft. Worth tomorrow morning.

He was connected with the passenger department of the Texas Transportation Company. His father, Geo. W. Bowman, banker, lives at Ft. Worth.

Bowman practiced law in Amarillo and was sent to the legislature from that district.

Printer's Baseball Tournament.

CINCINNATI, O., July 17.—Finals preparations are practically completed for the entertainment of the seventh annual baseball tournament of the Union Printers' National Baseball League, which is to be held during the first week of next month. President August Hermann of the Cincinnati National League team, himself a former editor of the paper, has tendered the use of the local ball grounds for the tournament.

Among the cities which will be represented are New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, St. Louis, Detroit, St. Paul, Cleveland, and Pittsburgh, and Indianapolis.

The winning team will be presented with a valuable cup known as the Herman trophy.

ACCUSED OF KILLING BROTHER OFFICER.

DALLAS, Tex., July 17.—S. B. Trammell, a member of the Dallas police force, was arrested in court today to stand trial on an indictment charging him with the murder of Jess Wright, also a member of the police force. Wright was shot and killed in a downtown pharmacy on June 17 last.

MRS. CABMAN INJURED FOR KILLING MRS. BAILEY.

By Associated Press.

BOSTON, Mass., July 17.—A woman, said to be minority shareholder, took to court yesterday to restore the treasury of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad one hundred and two million dollars alleged to have been illegally used in the building up of the system, he can in the supreme court today.

CLUB WOMEN INJURED WHEN AUTO CAPSIZES.

By Associated Press.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—Five club-women of Minneapolis were injured today when their automobile plunged over an embankment, falling fifty feet and crashing on a ledge, presenting a further drop of twenty thousand dollars. After the bend was arrested the woman collapsed.

FIVE PERSONS BROWN.

By Associated Press.

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 17.—Five persons were drowned here today as a result of the attempt of Miss Annie Burroughs, a music student, to swim across a riverbed containing rocks. Miss Burroughs was probably fifty yards from shore when she

Spo-Pe, Liberated After 33 Years, and Friend Made in Washington

GUNMAN'S TRIAL STARTS MONDAY

SHOT AND KILLED POLICE INSPECTOR LESS THAN FOUR WEEKS AGO.

CONSIDERED DARING MAN

Hails From Ohio and is Wanted in Michigan in Connection With Daylight Robbery There

Special to The News.

BOSTON, Mass., July 17.—The district attorney's office has everything in readiness to begin the trial next Monday of Lawrence (Chippie) Robinson, the notorious gunman, who less than four weeks ago shot and killed Police Inspector Thomas J. Norton, who was one of a squad of officers attempting to arrest Robinson and a companion in a well known downtown cafe. The accused man, despite his immature dress and outward appearance of gentility, is considered one of the most daring criminals with which the Boston police have ever had to deal and his trial is expected to attract wide attention.

Robinson hails from the state of Ohio and is understood to have made Toledo his headquarters most of the time. He was wanted in Grand Rapids, Mich., in connection with the daylight robbery of the Thompson jewelry store in that city last September, in which three men connected with the concern were shot and killed by two robbers, who escaped with more than $2,000 worth of diamonds.

Three months ago Walter Lawren was arrested in Covington, Ky., on a charge of having been connected with the Grand Rapids robbery. He is alleged to have confessed and to have named Robinson as his companion in the crime. The Grand Rapids police sent circulars broadcast bearing a description of Robinson and offering a reward of $2,000 for his capture. Other rewards offered for the capture and conviction of the murderers totaled more than $7,500. This led to active activity on the part of police and detectives the country over.

The Pliskertons were brought into the case by the national protective association of jewelers. Two of their detectives finally succeeded in locating Robinson in this city, where several weeks he had been living at a downtown hotel and spending money as easily as nearly anyone else. Living with him was a young man named Joseph Duddy, whose acquaintance he had made in Toledo, but who so far as is known was not concerned in the Grand Rapids robbery.

On June 19 the two detectives found Robinson and Duddy dining in the cafe. The detectives belonged in Philadelphia and in consequence had no authority to make any arrests here without a warrant. They therefore telephoned to police headquarters to send an officer to make the arrest. Police Inspector Norton was just leaving headquarters to attend the graduation of the office of his two children. Without hesitation he accepted the assignment and hurried in the car to meet the detainees. On learning of the notorious character of Robinson and his propensity to shoot on the slightest occasion, the inspector picked up two of his brother officers on the street, which made a party of five to accomplish the arrests.

Upon entering the cafe the party at once walked toward the table where sat Robinson and his companion. It was mid-afternoon and the cafe was filled with men and women, laughing and joking. As the police approached, Robinson glanced up and in an instant was on his feet. He drew his revolver quickly, saying, "You'll never take me alive." Then there was a shot. Inspector Norton grabbed Robinson, managed to shake him off, and broke away. Again Robinson fired his revolver. Norton fell with a bullet wound just under the heart and died before he reached the hospital.

As the police approached, Robinson glanced up and in an instant was on his feet. He drew his revolver quickly, saying, "You'll never take me alive." Then there was a shot. Inspector Norton grabbed Robinson, managed to shake him off, and broke away. Again Robinson fired his revolver. Norton fell with a bullet wound just under the heart and died before he reached the hospital.

The other policemen rushed at Robinson, but he fought them off, and reaching one of the exits, dashed up the stairway leading to the street. The pursuing policemen were right at his heels, each with his revolver in his hand. They followed a running pistol fight, the like of which Boston had never seen before. Bullets flew wildly, but not a pedestrian in the crowded street was hit. The crowd frightened by the shooting, frantically tried to get out of the way. Doorways were soon filled with men and women. Bullets shattered store windows nearby and the noise of bullets could be heard for blocks. Traitors were brought to a standstill and cars were deserted as they stood in the street.

The chase soon ended, however, for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.

The chase soon ended, however,

for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.

The chase soon ended, however,

for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.

The chase soon ended, however,

for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.

The chase soon ended, however,

for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.

The chase soon ended, however,

for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.

The chase soon ended, however, for the police were reinforced by mounted officers. Robinson cornered, was taken to headquarters, in the course of the pursuit the desperado was shot three times by the officers. None of the wounds proved serious and at the end of three or four days he was removed from the hospital and lodged in a cell.</